Central Otago Wine & Gourmet Tours

The Central Otago wine region is renowned above all for superb Pinot Noir, but also for its delicate Riesling and Chardonnays and enjoyable Pinot Gris and Rosé wines.

Appellation Wine Tours has set the wine touring benchmark in New Zealand with a selection of outstanding wines, a team of quality, certified guides & an important contribution to Wine Tourism. Significantly this was recognized in 2011, 12 & 13 winning NZ Great Wine Capitals Best of Wine Tourism Service award. More recently, they won LTG's Wine Tour Operator of the Year 2017, "Hall of Fame" status with Trip Advisor, & awarded Gold level Qualmark status.

With over 18 years of experience showcasing the magnificent world class Central Otago wine regions, Appellation Wine Tours will guide you through the vineyards of Gibbston, Bannockburn and Cromwell, sampling fine wine and artisan food from each region. Most daily tours are kept to a maximum of 12 adults, ensuring an interactive yet personalised experience with vineyard staff and owners.

Appellation also offers custom private wine tours for large groups, special interest groups, events or occasions, and can work closely with you to design your ultimate day out with other optional activities within Central Otago.
